Bookkeeper Sentenced for $55,000 Embezzlement

ALBANY, NY – District Attorney P. David Soares announced today that DONNA WILEY, 54, of Saranac Lake, was sentenced to 2 to 6 years in State Prison on Tuesday before Honorable Thomas A. Breslin in Albany County Court.

On January 1, 2012, WILEY pleaded guilty to (1) count of Grand Larceny in the Third Degree, a Class “D” Felony.

Between 2006 and 2009, while working as the bookkeeper for Ernest F. Fullam, Inc., a family-run company based in Albany, WILEY stole over $55,000. She did so by writing a number of business checks to herself, wiring money into non-business bank accounts and opening and charging a credit card with a $50,000 credit line in the name of a co-worker.

WILEY was ordered to pay over $35,000 in restitution to the victims. She previously paid $25,000 in restitution prior to sentencing.

Assistant District Attorneys John Czajka and Benjamin Clark of the Financial Crimes Unit handled the prosecution of this case.
