Man Sentenced After Robbing Same Store Four Times

ALBANY, NY – District Attorney P. David Soares announced today that ANTON GUMBS, 35, of Albany, was sentenced to 18 years in State Prison, to be followed by 5 years of Post-Release Supervision, before the Honorable Peter A. Lynch in Albany County Court this morning

GUMBS previously pleaded guilty to (1) Count of Robbery in the First Degree, a Class B Armed Violent Felony.

On four separate dates from January to March 2016, GUMBS displayed what appeared to be a firearm and demanded money at the same Sonoco station located on Delaware Avenue in the City of Albany. All four incidents were captured on the store's surveillance system. No one was injured during any of the incidents.

GUMBS recently pleaded guilty in Rensselaer County to similar charges for robbing a liquor store in that jurisdiction.

Assistant District Attorney Linda Griggs prosecuted this case.
