Sentencing in Albany Assault Case

ALBANY, NY- District Attorney P. David Soares announced today that ROBERT NICKOL, 33, of Albany, was sentenced to 3 years of Probation, before the Honorable Peter A. Lynch in Albany County Court this morning.

On October 4, 2018, NICKOL was found guilty after a jury trial of (2) Counts of Assault in the Third Degree, each Class A Misdemeanors.

Additionally, the jury found NICKOL not guilty of (1) Count of Strangulation in the Second Degree, a Class D Felony.

After hearing testimony and reviewing evidence of the case, the jury found that on separate occurrences NICKOL caused physical harm to a person who was known to him. On March 27, 2017, while at a residence in the City of Albany, NICKOL intentionally caused physical injury to the victim by means of hitting her in the face. On September 8, 2017, at the same location, NICKOL intentionally caused physical injury to the same victim by means of striking her with a wire cord.

At the time of the incident NICKOL was employed as an aide in the New York State Senate.

Assistant District Attorney Matthew Schrantz of the Special Victims Unit handled the prosecution of this case.
