Wrong Way Intoxicated Driver Pleads Guilty after St. Patrick's Day Crash on I-90

ALBANY, NY- District Attorney P. David Soares announced today that ANDREW FEBBIE, 21, of Albany, pleaded guilty to (1) Count of Aggravated Vehicular Assault, a Class C Felony, and (1) Count of Aggravated Driving While Intoxicated, a Misdemeanor, before the Honorable Peter A. Lynch in Albany County Court this morning.

On March 17, 2018, at approximately 5:13 P.M., FEBBIE entered the Everett Road exit on I-90 in the City of Albany and struck another vehicle head-on. As a result of the collision, the driver of the other vehicle suffered multiple fractured bones and internal injuries. FEBBIE did have multiple open containers of alcohol in his vehicle, an odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from him, and was found unconscious at the scene. Blood taken at the hospital revealed FEBBIE's blood alcohol concentration to be .25 percent. The victim was transported to the hospital and treated for the injuries. At the time of crash, FEBBIE was driving on a conditional license stemming from a previous driving related offense.

FEBBIE faces 3 to 9 years in State Prison when sentenced on September 25, 2018. Additionally, FEBBIE will be subject to a minimum of one year license revocation subject to Department of Motor Vehicle determinations, the installation of an Ignition Interlock Device for 3 years upon release from custody, as well as any restitution to the victim for uninsured expenses.

Vehicular Crimes Bureau Chief Mary Tanner-Richter and Assistant District Attorney David Szalda are handling the prosecution of this case.
