15 Years for Baseball Bat Assault

ALBANY, NY – District Attorney P. David Soares today announced that KEITH BIGGER, 43, was sentenced before Honorable Judge Lamont in Albany County Court today to 15 years in State Prison for beating two victims with an aluminum baseball bat. BIGGER previously pleaded guilty to (1) Count of Attempted Assault in the First Degree, a Class “C” Violent Felony. BIGGER will also serve 5 years of post-release supervision after his release from state custody.

On June 24, 2012, BIGGER unlawfully entered a residence in the City of Albany through a window at the home of a victim known to him. BIGGER then struck the victim in the head with a baseball bat, causing severe lacerations and bruises. BIGGER then turned his attention to a second victim, who had attempted to leave the house, and dragged her back into the residence and repeatedly struck her in the face, head and body with the baseball bat.

Assistant District Attorney Chantelle Schember of the Special Victims Unit handled the prosecution of this case.
