Jail Time for DWI Revoked License Driver

ALBANY, NY – District Attorney P. David Soares announced today NICKSON JACKSON, 27, of Albany, was sentenced to 1 to 3 years in State Prison before the Honorable Judge Thomas A. Breslin in Albany County Supreme Court this morning. JACKSON was also ordered to pay a $1,000 fine, in addition to having a mandatory Ignition Interlock Device installed for 3 years, a minimum 1-year license revocation subject to the Department of Motor Vehicle determinations, and a required completion of the Victim Impact Panel and Drinking Driver Programs.

On August 11, 2017 JACKSON pleaded guilty to (1) Count of Aggravated Driving While Intoxicated, a Class E Felony.

On May 25, 2017, at approximately 6:26 pm, JACKSON crashed into the rear of another vehicle while traveling on I-90, pushing the victim's vehicle into and on top of the guiderail, in the City of Albany. State Police observed JACKSON to be intoxicated when located outside his vehicle subsequent to the crash. JACKSON failed all field sobriety tests and was found to have a BAC of a .22. JACKSON was driving with a revoked license and without a previously Court Ordered Ignition Interlock Device.

Assistant District Attorney David Szalda of the Vehicular Crimes prosecuted this case.
