FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: SEPTEMBER 28, 2018

Sousie Arraigned for Alleged Role in Cohoes Burglary

ALBANY, NY- District Attorney P. David Soares announced today that ANDY SOUSIE, 31, of Troy, was arraigned before the Honorable William A. Carter in Albany County Court this morning for his alleged role in a burglary that took place on Remsen Street in the City of Cohoes.

SOUSIE was arraigned on (1) Count of Burglary in the Second Degree, a Class C Felony, and (1) Count of Conspiracy in the Fourth Degree, a Class E Felony.

An indictment returned by an Albany County Grand Jury alleges that from July 30, 2018 through August 5, 2018, SOUSIE, personally or in concert with another person or persons, conspired to and did unlawfully enter a residence on Remsen Street in the City of Cohoes to commit the crime of Burglary in the Second Degree.

SOUSIE pleaded not guilty to the charges today and was remanded back to the Albany County Correctional Facility in lieu of bail in the amount of $170,000. SOUSIE is represented by the Albany County Conflict Defender's Office. No new public court dates have been scheduled by the Court at this time.

Assistant District Attorney David Szalda is handling the prosecution of this case.
