Still Driving When Your License Has Been Suspended 15 Times? Head to State Prison

ALBANY, NY – District Attorney P. David Soares announced today that BRYAN IRVING, 40, of Ravena, was sentenced to 1 to 3 years in State Prison before the Honorable Peter A. Lynch in Albany County Court this morning.

On September 25, 2014, IRVING pleaded guilty to (1) Count of Aggravated Unlicensed Operation of a Motor Vehicle in the First Degree, a Class E Felony.

On July 31, 2014, at approximately 3:24pm, officers from the Coeymans Police Department initiated a traffic stop on a 1995 Lexus that was being driven by IRVING on Route 9W in the Town of Ravena. Police uncovered that IRVING was driving with a suspended license, and that his driver's license had previously been suspended 15 times for multiple traffic violations.

At the time of the stop IRVING was under the supervision of Probation for a previous drug conviction. IRVING was also sentenced today to a concurrent term of 3 years in State Prison for a Violation of Probation charge.

Assistant District Attorney Melinda Seiden-Fiorino prosecuted this case.
